FIRST READING

Jer 31:7-9

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah.

Thus says the Lord:

"Sing aloud with gladness for Jacob,
and raise shouts for the chief of the nations;
proclaim, give praise, and say,
'Save, O Lord, your people,
the remnant of Israel.'

"See, I am going to bring them from the land of the north,
and gather them from the farthest parts of the earth,
among them those who are blind and those who are lame,
those with child and those in labour, together;
a great company, they shall return here.

"With weeping they shall come,
and with consolations I will lead them back,
I will let them walk by brooks of water,
in a straight path in which they shall not stumble;
for I have become a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my firstborn."

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 126.1-2a,2b-3,4-5,6 (R.3)

R. The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion,
we were like those who dream.
Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with shouts of joy. R.

Then it was said among the nations,
"The Lord has done great things for them."
The Lord has done great things for us, and we rejoiced. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, Alleluia,
Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death
And brought us life through his gospel

GOSPEL

Mk 10:46-52

✠ A reading from the holy gospel according to Mark.

As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside.

When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth,
he began to shout out and say,

"Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Many sternly ordered him to be quiet,

but he cried out even more loudly,
"Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Jesus stood still and said,

"Call him here."

And they called the blind man, saying to him,

"Take heart;

get up, he is calling you."

So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus.

Then Jesus said to him,

"What do you want me to do for you?"

The blind man said to him,

"My teacher, let me see again."

Jesus said to him,

"Go; your faith has made you well."

Immediately the man regained his sight and followed Jesus on the way.

The gospel of the Lord.
