OUR VISION

Our Parish leads and supports all members on their journey of faith

OUR MISSION

To be a welcoming community
To share a sense of belonging and support
To celebrate our liturgy
To nurture spiritual growth
To be open to change
To promote social justice

SUNDAY, 1st NOVEMBER 2009 - ALL SAINTS

RECENTLY DECEASED: Sue Dick (wife of Terry), Sue was one of the foundation parishioners and also the longest serving parish secretary of Holy Saviour. Sue will be sadly missed by all whose hearts she had touched. The parish office will not be the same without her, she was a loyal friend & confidant and we were blessed to have had her as our colleague. Rest in peace, Sue.

ANNIVERSARIES: Nicola Doley, Doug Provis, Joelle Collins

PRAYERS FOR RECOVERY: Nicole Helsham

Welcome to Fr Minh Tran who has arrived this week as our parish administrator.

ALL SOULS DAY: Fr Minh will be celebrating mass at 7pm for this very special feast day.

HOLY SAVIOUR DAY
SUNDAY, 8 NOVEMBER
10am MASS

HOLY SAVIOUR DAY VOLUNTEERS: Thank you to all the people who signed up to bring a symbol representing their group. It will be interesting to see all those creative symbols!

PHOTOS: There is still time to email in a photo, if you have one for the HSD PowerPoint. Just email them to cmjames@netspace.net.au, no later than Tuesday afternoon.
Thanks, Conny.

HOLY SAVIOUR DAY MARKET: Earlier in the year we heard about the importance of FAIRTRADE initiatives in preventing the trafficking of women by giving an income to the vulnerable. The Environment Group has reminded us of the importance of Fairtrade for sustainability. In Australia, we recognize Fairtrade initiatives by giving employment to Aboriginal people. So next weekend we will have goods available for early planners to buy ethical Christmas presents: jewellery & handicrafts from the slums of Bangkok; handicrafts from El Salvador; Christmas cards from Timor Leste & Aboriginal communities; and Fairtrade coffee.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION:

Congratulations to the children who celebrated the Sacrament of Reconciliation last Wednesday and Thursday evenings. A special thanks to Fr Gerry who celebrated this sacrament with us.

EL SALVADOR SCHOLARSHIPS:

Thank You to the many generous parishioners who have offered to sponsor the children for next year. The community will be very excited to hear the news that we have once again met the target and they can all enrol in the school.

CATHERINE'S CRAFT SHOW: Saturday 28 & Sunday 29 November; Saturday 5 & Sunday 6 December, 4 Canova Dve, Glen Waverley. All proceeds go to TWIG. See flyer on board.

CRAFT GROUP NEWS:

Our next craft day will be held on Saturday, 7 November from 10am-2pm in the Café Foyer. Last month the crafty ladies combined their talents to make some lovely little fabric bonbons which you will be able to buy at the Christmas Market to be held here on Friday 4 December. This month we will be making some Christmas Angels, fabric baskets, tag blocks and some other little surprises which again will be on our stall at the Christmas Market. So come along (bring your lunch) and join a noisy but friendly group of ladies for a fun day. See you there!

LETTER FROM SABRINA (ONE OF THE MAURITIAN FAMILIES) TO HOLY SAVIOUR thanking the parishioners who took their three children to school for the first three terms this year: Dear friends, you have been such a support to us during this year. We want to express our deepest thanks and appreciation, because without people like you, we didn't know how to bring Chloe to school. We have to thank Father Gerry who announced our situation during the Mass. Thank you for making it happen. Thank you for driving Chloe safely. We wish you all the most wonderful Christmas. May love, peace, joy, faith and a hope be yours in ever increasing measures. May God bless you all, From Dennis, Sabrina, Chloe and Axele. "God can't be everywhere, so he made friends like you"

FIRST READING

Rev 7:2-4,9-14

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 24:1-2.3-4ab,5-6 (R7c+10b)

R. Lord, blessed are those who seek your face

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it,
the world, and those who live in it;
for he has founded it on the seas,
and established it on the river. R.

Who shall ascend the mountain of the Lord?
And who shall stand in his holy place?
Those who have clean hands and pure hearts,
who do not lift up their souls to what is false. R.

They will receive blessing from the Lord,
and vindication from the God of their salvation.
Such is the company of those who seek him,
who seek the face of the God of Jacob. R.

SECOND READING

1 Jn 3:1-3

A reading from the first letter of John.

See what love the Father has given us,
that we should be called children of God;
and that is what we are.

The reason the world does not know us
is that it did not know him.

Beloved, we are God's children now;
what we will be has not yet been revealed.

What we do know is this:

when he is revealed, we will be like him,
for we will see him as he is.

And all who have this hope in God purify themselves,
just as he is pure.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, Alleluia,

Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened,

And I will give you rest, says the Lord

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Mt 5:1-12

✠ A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain;
and after he sat down,
his disciples came to him.

Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

"Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.

"Blessed are the merciful,
for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.

"Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when people revile you
and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward is great in heaven."

The gospel of the Lord.
